

Muhammed Santuraki is a Chartered Chemical Engineer with vast international experience in Energy sector in Africa, United Kingdom and the Middle East. An Alumnus of The Robert Gordon University Aberdeen United Kingdom, former Board member of Energy Institute, Society of Petroleum Engineers and Institute of Materials, Minerals and Mining, Aberdeen, United Kingdom.

Muhammed rose to the position of Project Manager in charge of equipment strategy maintenance program on a Multi-Billion Dollar Liquefied Natural Gas plant (RasGas Qatar) producing over 12 Billion Standard Cubic Feet of sour natural gas per day, which won several international Maintenance and Reliability awards.

Muhammed was a pioneer member of Environmental Watch Tower, Board of trustee of Baitul Hikma foundation, Founder and chairman of Muhammed Santuraki Foundation for Educational, Social and Community Development and the Vice Chairman of Qatar Nigeria Business Council.